From the Desk of Fr. Francis

Greetings of Christ's Peace and Joy! Hope you all had a blessed week.

Thanks

Our parish had a life-giving, unifying, and fruitful weekend. Thanks to all who attended our first Parish Leadership Day at Cenacle Retreat Center last Saturday and thanks to Rolly Dessert for generously volunteering his time and talents to guide us through the day. 30 of us spent the day in prayer and reflection on the importance of trust and communication. One of the major themes of the day is how do we move from I to WE and to Christo-Centered disciples.

Thanks to our Young Adults and many parents who helped to sponsor the first Halloween Fest for our unified school children and families last Saturday evening. Despite the storm and strong wind, many of our families came to enjoy the party in the Lower Hall and Gym at St. Barbara Campus.

Thanks to all who worked hard for my Installation Mass or I would like to call Unity Mass. Many of our ministers and leaders came for the rehearsal on Friday and decoration of the Church and of the Gym on Saturday, and of course the celebration on Sunday. My heartfelt gratitude to all liturgical ministers, members of the Sisters of Charity and of the Knights of Columbus, and to the generosity of the Walter Pomierski & Son Funeral Home, John G. Ligda Funeral Directors, and our own Jimmy Bertucci and the Thursday Bingo Program for presenting a beautiful commemorative folding prayer card for priests on this special occasion.

Thanks to Jimmy Bertucci and his Thursday Bingo team for offering $5000.00 for our parish operating expenses and $300.00 for the Unity Mass hospitality costs. We are grateful to their hard work and commitment.

Thanks to Elizabeth Masangcay for beautifully decorating St. Therese Worship Site for the Altar of the Dead and for Thanksgiving.

“In Communion with the Holy Souls”

We begin the month of November with the solemn celebrations of the feasts of All Saints and of All Souls. These celebrations remind us of our mortality and yearning for immortality and our call to pray for all the faithful departed.

Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta beautifully put, “November begins with two beautiful days, the Feasts of all Saints and All Souls. Holy Mother Church remembers all of her children, to whom she has given the life of Jesus through Baptism ... We all know that during this whole month we give them extra love and care, by praying to them and for them.”

Our parish offers many opportunities to pray for our loved ones who have gone before us and for all faithful departed throughout the month. By the time you read this bulletin, we already had our first Memorial Mass on Sat., Nov. 2nd at St. Barbara Church. If you missed the mass, you are invited to write out your intentions on all Souls Day Envelopes and bring it to Church office and your intentions will be remembered throughout the month.

You are invited to the following remembrance opportunities:

Saturday, Nov. 2nd at the 5pm Vigil Mass---SMI Memorial Mass at St. Barbara

Sunday Nov. 3rd at the 10:30am Mass---St. Therese Memorial Mass

Sunday Nov. 17th at 12 noon Mass---St. Rocco Memorial Mass at St. Therese

Sunday Nov. 24th at 12 noon Mass---Mandarin Group Memorial Mass at St. Therese

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace. Amen.

May their soul and the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.

St. Barbara, pray for us and our community!

St. Therese of the Little Flower, pray for us and our community!

St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta, pray for us and our community!

Peace, Fr. Francis

Respect Life Corner

Could This Louisiana Case Lead to an Overturn of Roe vs. Wade? The U.S. Supreme Court is back in session, and has determined it will hear arguments in a case from Louisiana that could be a bellwether of how the Court will determine abortion cases moving forward.

The case, June Medical Services v. Gee, involves a Louisiana law that requires any doctor performing an abortion to have admitting privileges at a hospital nearby. The law is similar to a Texas law that was struck down (Whole Woman's Health vs. Hellerstedt) by the Supreme Court three years ago. To discuss the case, Steven Aden, Chief Legal Officer at Americans United for Life, shared his insight on Relevant Radio®.

Aden explained what exactly the court will consider in hearing arguments for this case, saying, "The Supreme Court will decide this term whether the Louisiana law is the same, different enough from the Texas law, or whether it should overturn the Hellerstedt decision and go a different way. Or even, conceivably, if the Supreme Court is ready, willing, and able to overturn Roe vs. Wade and return the question of abortion to the states."

"The other half is the cross petition filed by the State of Louisiana against the abortion provider," he continued. "And that one was also granted, so the Supreme Court will decide the questions presented by Louisiana also, which is: Why do we assume that abortionists like June Medical can stand in the shoes of their patients and challenge the constitutionality of the very health and safety laws that are designed to protect patients from them?"

Some may wonder why it would be necessary for an abortion provider to have admitting privileges at a nearby hospital when the abortions will not be performed at that location. Aden pointed out that it is a matter of protecting women and children in the event of an emergency.

He said, "Statistics that even the abortion industry agrees with say that 0.3%, and it might be as high as 1%, of abortions end up in the hospital. So if you've got somewhere between 1 in 100 or 1 in 300 abortions ending up in a hospital in any given year, and you have thousands of abortions being done in that state in any given year, then obviously you've got dozens of women being transported to the hospital every year for abortion complications."

"I think it's reasonable and I think it's common sense that the state requires that abortionists cannot abandon their patients anymore. Right? They say, 'Hey, if something goes wrong, just go to the ER. They'll fix it up for you.' That's what they do now, and it's not acceptable."

Speaking on the future of abortion laws in America, Aden expressed optimism that the current justices serving on the Supreme Court will rule differently than justices have in the past.

Seeking to See Jesus by Sister Caritas

There is a saying "Good things come in small packages." Sometimes being short in stature enables you to get through small spaces which a larger, taller person could not do. In today's Gospel, we meet Zacchaeus. How does his size become part of him meeting Jesus?

Zacchaeus was the chief tax collector of Jericho. He was wondering who Jesus was. He wanted to see Jesus. The crowd was too great. Because he was short in height he could not see over the crowd. His desire to know who Jesus was, was so great he climbed sycamore tree. It must have really mattered to him as he was both important in the city and rich but he was willing to go up in a tree to see Jesus. To his great amazement, when Jesus got to the point of passing the tree, Jesus looked up and found Zacchaeus among the branches... "Come down. I am staying at your house today," said Jesus. This is a life changing event for Zacchaeus. After the meal he makes a public statement before Jesus and everyone. "I will give half of what I have to the poor. If I have cheated anyone I will repay them four times as much as I have taken." Jesus says, in response despite the grumbling words of some who were there. "Today salvation has entered your house. This man is also a son of Abraham. The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

In the story Zacchaeus' height was a means God used to help him find Jesus. It was a way salvation came to him. God uses many things to bring us to Himself. The basic thing was that the man wanted to see Jesus, find out who He was. He made a sacrifice of climbing the tree. Later at home he made an even bigger sacrifice of his wealth. How much do you want to see, and be with Jesus? What are you willing to do? What "trees are you willing to climb?" What sacrifice will you make to be with Jesus and obtain the salvation of your soul? God wants us to seek Him. He even gives us grace to want to find Him. God calls us to come closer, to do all we can to be with God. It's up to us to make the choice and do it, not just talk about it!
